 Publish to self  Published on 12/06/2018 4:04:10 PM	 Publish to group Once you have tested your Cortana yourself and are happy with it, you can deploy it to a limited group of users of your choosing. This is a great way to let others test out your skill and provide feedback before you deploy it to a larger audience	 Publish to world When your skill is fully tested and ready for production you can choose to make it public. Your skill will be available to Cortana and the Universal Store after review by the Cortana team.
